Unit 3 Make yourself at home!

Word check! and Listening 🎧 Track 10

1

Mrs. Ross: Come in! Make yourself at home! Please show Yui the house, Amy.

Amy: Sure! Yui, you can leave your shoes here.

Yui: OK.

Amy: And here's the living room.

Yui: It's very nice.

Amy: Thank you. Here's the TV, the DVD player, and these are the remote controls – I can show you how to use them later – oh, and this is Max, our dog!

Yui: Konnichiwa Max!

Max: Woof!

Yui: I think he understands Japanese. Clever boy!

2

Amy: And this is the kitchen.

Yui: It's big! What a nice kitchen! Is there a dining room?

Amy: Yes, it's over here. We eat breakfast and lunch in the kitchen, and we have dinner in the dining room. In the summer we sometimes eat in the garden.

Yui: OK, I see.

Max: Woof! Woof!

Yui: Come on Max, let's see the garden!

3

Amy: Let's go upstairs ... And this is the bathroom.

Yui: I see.

Amy: Oh and my mum and dad's room has an en-suite bathroom.

Yui: Sorry, I don't understand. What did you say?

Amy: An en-suite. They have a bathroom in their bedroom.

Yui: Nice! So you have two bathrooms.

Amy: That's right. You can use this one.

Conversation 🎧 Track 11

Amy: Come on, Yui. This is my room.

Yui: Oh, it's very nice!

Amy: Thank you.

Yui: I like your posters.

Amy: Thanks! Do you want to see your room?

Shota: It's a koto. It's a musical instrument.

Jenny: Why is it on the floor?

Shota: We play it sitting down. Would you like to try?

Jenny: Sure!

2

Jenny: Excuse me. What are those?

Boy: They're koinobori. They're decorations.

Jenny: When do you use them?

Boy: They're for Children's Day. Parents raise one koinobori for each child in the family.

Jenny: Where do they raise them?

Boy: In front of the house.

Jenny: Oh, they're like flags.

Boy: Yes, that's right.

3

Jenny: Can I ask a question?

Girl: Sure.

Jenny: What are those?

Girl: They're karuta.

Jenny: What are they for?

Girl: They're special cards for playing a game. We usually play it on New Year's Day.

Jenny: What do the words say?

Girl: They're poems.

Destination: Canada

Activity 1 and 2 🎧 Track 38

Whistler Blackcomb is a ski and snowboard resort. From November to May, the skiing and snowboarding are fantastic. And in the summer and fall, you can go hiking and mountain-biking.

The Empress Hotel in Victoria, British Columbia is more than a hundred years old. Kings, queens, and movie stars have stayed at Canada's most famous hotel. In the summer, tourists love to have afternoon tea at the Empress – and the food is amazing!

In September, you can watch polar bears in Churchill. The large, white animals pass near the town at this time, as they move between the ice and the land.

The Horseshoe Falls, in Niagara Falls, Ontario is amazing. You can take a boat trip under the waterfall. You may get very wet, so you should go in the summer.
